By a letter, Docket Entry No. 98, the plaintiff requests that the Court order jail administrators to permit him “to receive 3 days a week [sic] minimum...access to [the] law library.” Jail administrators have the discretion to manage their facilities and to determine the circumstances under which those they have in custody may access the jail’s resources. The Court has determined to defer to the determination made by the relevant jail administrators as it relates to the number of days those they have in custody may access the law library. Therefore, the plaintiff’s request, Docket Entry No. 98, is denied.

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to the plaintiff.
